

Exegesis Exercise 1- Due February 19

Read the Gospel of Mark through in one sitting. As you read make a list of Observations and a list of Questions. The list of observations should include those things that stood out to you as significant- both for understanding Mark and for application to your life. The list of questions should include those things that you did not understand and anything you think deserves further investigation.