

Assignment 1 – Forming the Question

---

1. Choose a general topic of study
2. Form a question about that topic to frame and focus your study
3. Analyze and rewrite until the question clearly communicates the issue and gives specific direction to your research
4. A good question should be clear, focused, significant, and concise.
5. Write out your question for instructor approval.