

I Cor. 1:18-25

18.a For

word
The
of the cross

is
to those who are perishing

foolishness

b but

it

is
to us
who are being saved

power
the
of God

19.a For

is

written

I

WILL DESTROY

WISDOM
OF THE WISE

b AND

I

WILL SET ASIDE

CLEVERNESS
OF THE CLEVER

20.a

wise man

is

where?

b

scribe

is

where?

c

debater
the
of this age

is

where?

d

God

has made foolish?
not

the
of the world

21.a For
since

world
the

did come
not
to know God
in the wisdom
of God
through its wisdom

b God was well pleased to save those who believed through the foolishness of the message preached

22.a For indeed Jews

ask for signs

b and Greeks

search for wisdom

23.a but we

preach Christ crucified

b [he is] a stumbling block to Jews

c and foolishness to Gentiles

24. but Christ [is] the power of God and the wisdom of God to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks

25.a Because foolishness is wiser than men

b and weakness is stronger than men
